

IT'S HALLOWEEN!

Halloween is very popular in United Kingdom, in America, and now in all Europe. English and American children make a lantern from a pumpkin that it's called: "Jack o'Lantern". They dress up as ghosts, witches... or something horrible! They go to neighbours' houses and say "trick or treat". If they get a treat, they go away. If they do not get a treat, they play a trick!
